Issues of concern		Impact
MDT's will not accept the newest computer records system update.		MDT unit crashes and is non-operable.
MDT's operate on Windows 7.		Microsoft ended mainstream support of Windows 7 in January 2015 but extended limited support through January 2020. Windows will no longer support this system.
MDT's do not fit the docking/charging base.		MDT is unsecured and slides off docking station when vehicle conducts turns.
MDT keyboards are not backlit.		Officers working evening shifts are unable to see the keyboard keys while typing after sunset. Use of any internal dome lights to remediate the issue results in a risk to officer safety and negatively impacts night vision.
Docking stations are not compatible with current MDT's. (Old Panasonic CF30's)		Computers no longer charge in the police cruisers and the batteries no longer hold a sufficient charge. As such, they have been jerry-rigged to charge via a power cord connected to an AC-DC power inverter, connected to an EVSE Electric Vehicle Supply Equipment adapter.
Fully charged MDT's shutoff intermittently without cause.		Impacts officer readiness and response times and creates an unnecessary safety risk to the responding unit.
Mifi units are replacement units secured externally on the MDT via Velcro.		Mifi detaches intermittently from the computer and falls on the ground.
Summary:
Additional Information:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • NPD currently utilizes Dell Latitude 14 Rugged 5414 (2 purchased 2014) (2-Toughbooks purchased 2008 – unusable expired operating system) • Windows 7 was released in 2009. In 2018 when Windows 10 rolled out, the police computer records system – (Computer Aided Dispatch) CAD – switched to the new operating system. We are currently using a patch to run the system but the limited RAM and ROM will not meet the next system upgrade rendering the units unusable. • Tuffbooks4Less may consider purchasing the two old 2014 MDT's for approximately $200-$300 each. There is no refurbished value for the 2008 Toughbooks.
