The Vermont Statutes Online (as of 4-18-06) in Title 19, Highways, Chapter 3: Town Highways; Para 201. Definitions, says "Pent road" is any town highway which, by written allowance of the selectmen, is enclosed and occupied by the adjoining landowner with unlocked stiles, gates and bars in such places as the selectmen designate.'

FIVE: Allowance Land: This was a form of compensation to owners of land through which a road was laid. Usually the allowance land was adjacent to the land damaged by the road being laid. Currently, the
